Phone: 438 380-9880

E-Mail: info@dyadcycles.com

URL: <http://www.dyadcycles.com>

Overview:

Dyad is a one stop shop where scooters can be rented and patrons can sign up for guided scooter tours of Montréal. These entertaining cultural outings (including food tastings) offer participants the chance to ride scooters through the city's most vibrant neighbourhoods. Easy to ride with no driver's license required for participants over 18-years-old, the scooters offer visitors a hands-on, exhilarating, memorable, and fun experience. The company offers four tours: 1) North (Scooter), where you'll discover the Plateau, Mile End, Mile-Ex, and Little Italy; 2) South (Scooter), which takes you from the Plateau to the Old Port, and then alongside the water of the Lachine Canal; 3) Night (Scooter), which brings you through the Latin Quarter, Chinatown, Old Port, Lachine Canal, the Sud-Ouest borough, and the McGill Ghetto after sunset; and 4) Snow Bike, a winter biking adventure through Mount Royal Park. The shop is closed annually from January to March.

URL: <http://www.botabota.ca>

Overview:

Docked at the Old Port, this contemporary spa, magnificently fashioned in an old ferryboat, takes on the allure of a chic liner with minimalist décor. Elegant and peaceful, Bota Bota hosts some of the most sublime views of the St. Lawrence River and the city. In addition to providing the Scandinavian-inspired formula of capitalizing on the relaxing and invigorating virtues of water, the spa offers beneficial treatments for both the body and face. The terraces, bridges, gardens and treatment cabins dotted with portholes allow for the ultimate escape...Salus per aquam, or health by water.
